A COMMUNITY PROGRAM

Summer camp will build positive relationships among the police, youth and community. There is no cost to attend D.A.R.E. to be G.R.E.A.T. Summer Camp, making it available to all students. D.A.R.E. to be G.R.E.A.T. Summer Camp is funded by community donations. Without the support of the community, this valuable program wouldn't be available for our youth. We need your support. You can help in the following ways.

- Donate your time and volunteer for summer camp as a mentor. Working with youth is a positive experience.
- Sponsor a child – for only $100.00 you can give a child an opportunity to attend a one week long camp session.
- Donate supplies such as arts & crafts materials, sports equipment and food.
- Make a cash donation to help with the funding of summer camp.

All donations are tax deductible. If you would like to help with our summer camp, contact Officer Sheryl Huiras, Tigard Police Department, 503-718-2578.
